BIG TOP

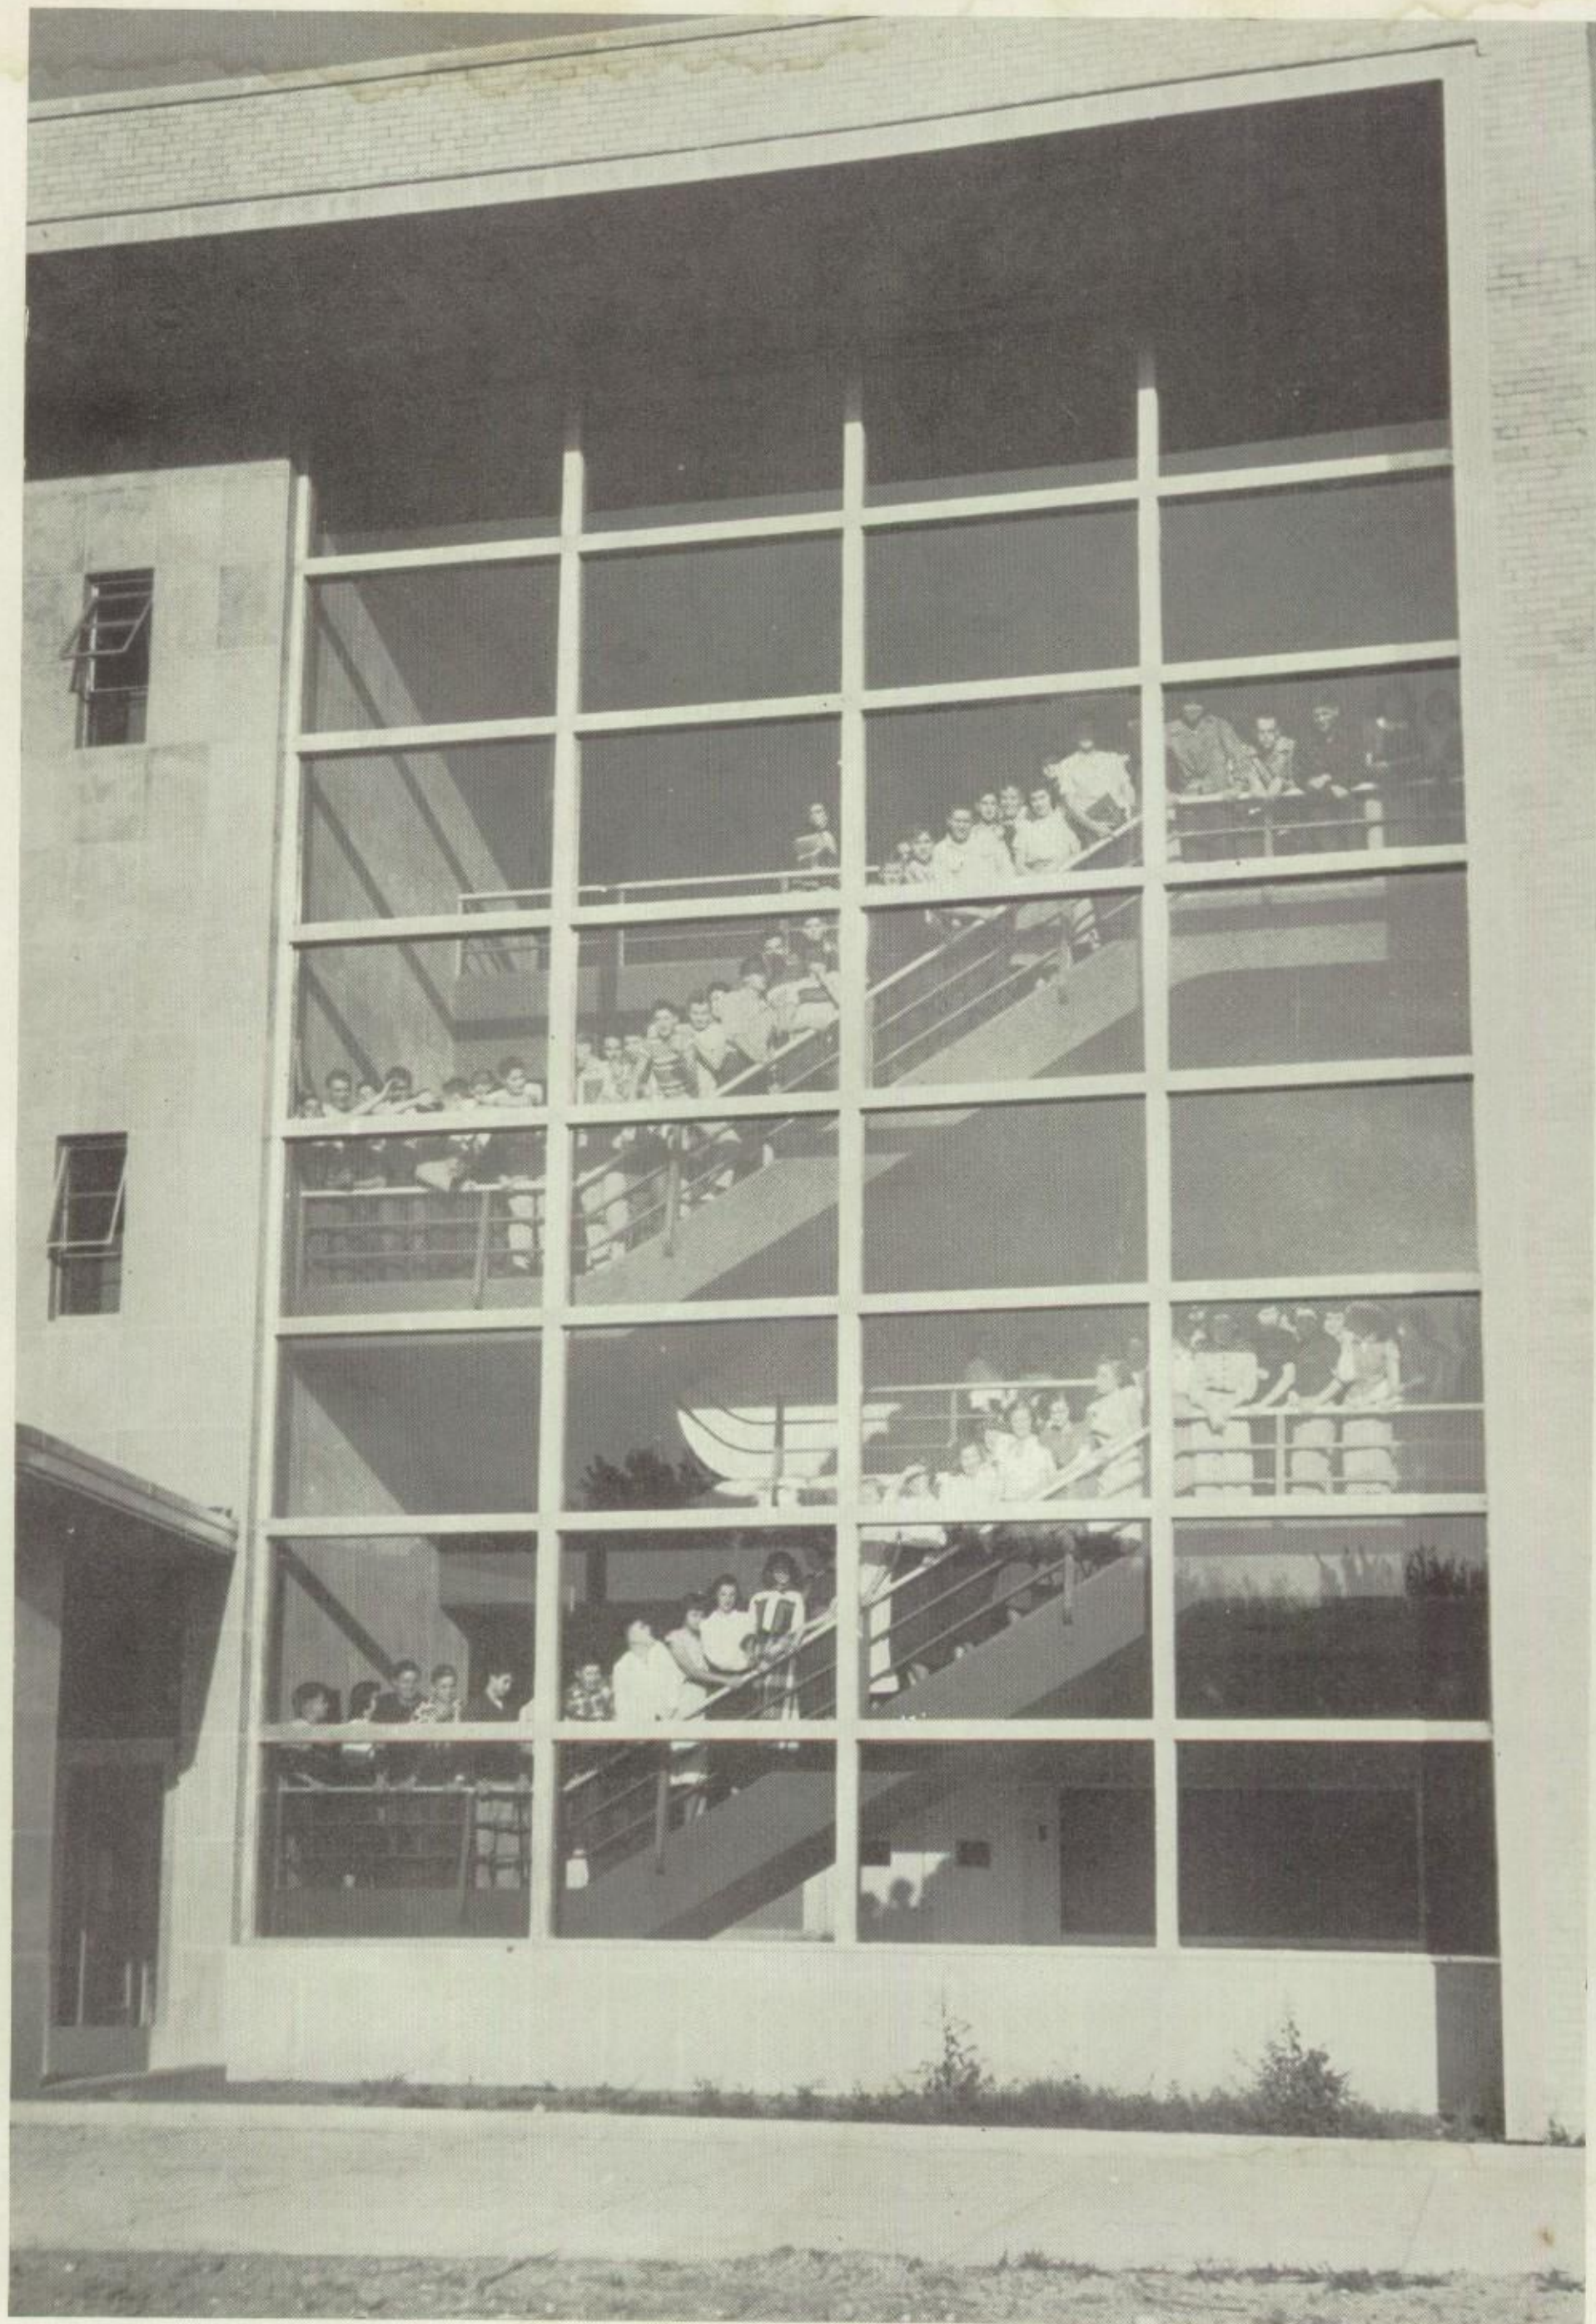

Foreword

It's rather nice to remember
When the circus came to town;
Of the fun we had together
As we watched the frolicking clowns.
There were acrobats and animals
And a lion tamer, too.
It made us a little dizzy
To watch three rings at once.

Life, too, has its Big Top
With its canopy of stars,
And you and I with all the rest
Are the acrobats on bars.
All of us performers are.
Each one must play a part
As Time, the Master of the Ring,
Cracks his whip for the show to start.

East Peoria Jars Central Quint, 54-50

It was "Fathers Night" and East Peoria, but it wasn't Central's, so the Raiders won 54-50. But 'twasn't easy. Just ask a Central who did it before, 54-42. Didn't this time, but they constructed a razzle-dazzle try in the 10th quarter after trailing by substantial distances in the first three.

At 1:32 remaining, the Lions edged to 51-48. Then E.P. dialed a trio of charities in the final seconds and that was that. Roy Grover's basket at the gun did help Central.

East Peoria had three baskets in double figures—Terry Olmstead's 25, Jack Gould's 17, and Dick Thrich's 15.
